Kendrion CEO Piet Veenema: 'The Kendrion Electromagnetic division performed positively and completely in line with the expectations in the first six months of 2008. Kendrion will consequently focus more sharply on this activity within the framework of the "Focused Acceleration" strategy with a view to further strengthening Kendrion's positioning as an international, high-tech and fast-growing company. The market in which Kendrion Electromagnetic operates affords good opportunities for attaining this objective. This has furthermore led us to the decision to launch an investigation into the possible sale of our Kendrion Distribution Services activity. We expect to be able to provide additional information regarding the results of this investigation within the coming half year.

Developments

The company put in a satisfactory performance in the second quarter of 2008 with organic revenue growth of 7% and a 10% rise in operating profit. The increase in profit was somewhat lower at 4% in the second quarter due to tax effects. In combination with a good first quarter, Kendrion was consequently able to achieve a good half-year performance with operating profit and net profit rising by 12% and 10% respectively in the first six months of 2008.

Kendrion Electromagnetic benefited from good market conditions and realised organic revenue growth of 13% in the first six months of 2008. Demonstrable improvements were achieved across all the business units of Kendrion Electromagnetic (both automotive and industrial). Linnig Antriebstechnik, which was acquired in late 2007, made a good contribution to this result. This activity has now also been successfully integrated into Kendrion Electromagnetic. Additional costs were incurred in the second quarter of 2008 due to the launch of a number of larger projects in primarily Austria. A new low-cost production unit was opened in Romania in order to counter price pressure in some segments. The level of activity increased further in China and, particularly, in the Czech Republic.

Kendrion Distribution Services achieved organic revenue growth of 4% in the first six months of 2008 and this growth is attributable almost entirely to increased volume. Kendrion Distribution Services' operating profit improved by 13% (EUR 1.0 million) in the first six months of 2008 in comparison to the same period of last year. This result includes the losses incurred on the sale of the Vink activities in the United Kingdom and Ireland earlier this year and includes a book profit on the sale of a building in Norway. The latter sale is a result of the expansion of the Vink activities and the company's relocation to a new building in Norway. On balance there is a positive effect of EUR 0.8 million on operating profit. Further deterioration currently only persists in Germany and this is mainly limited to one region of this country. In addition to the organisational measures implemented earlier this year, this continued decline led to a subsequent reorganisation in June of this year. This measure resulted in a considerable reduction in costs in this region of Germany. The roll-out of the ERP system within the Vink organisation is now once again progressing to plan.

Servico also once again performed well in the second quarter of 2008.

Financial position

The balance sheet total rose by EUR 14 million in comparison to year-end 2007 to a total of EUR 317 million. This increase is largely attributable to the realised organic growth and customary seasonal patterns. Due in part to the above and owing to the dividend that was paid out in the first six months of 2008 and the post-payment for acquisitions, the net debt position increased by EUR 14.7 million in comparison to year-end 2007. The free cash flow from operations improved by EUR 8 million in comparison to the first six months of 2007.

Net investments totalled EUR 5.1 million in the first six months of 2008 with a depreciation level of EUR 5.8 million.

Solvency amounted to 30% in mid-2008.

Acquisition of Tri-Tech LLC

Kendrion reached an agreement with the owners of Tri-Tech LLC concerning the acquisition of this company. Tri-Tech LLC is located in Mishawaka, Indiana in the United States and has approximately 35 employees. The company generates annual revenue of approximately USD 5 million. Tri-Tech LLC's core activity entails the development and production of electromagnetic components for soft drink dispensers. The company is profitable and is being acquired in order to further strengthen Kendrion Electromagnetic's industrial activities. The industrial activities conducted by Kendrion Electromagnetic are expected to grow further in the years ahead, due in part to a recently acquired project in the United States and the continued expansion of its service activities in this country. Within the context of this growth, the acquisition of Tri-Tech will serve to substantially support these activities by further strengthening Kendrion's base in the United States. It has been decided in consultation with the sellers not to disclose any further details regarding the purchase price. The company will begin contributing to earnings per share immediately upon finalisation of the acquisition.

Strategy

Kendrion is committed to introducing greater focus to its activities based on its "Focused Acceleration" strategy. The related aim is to attain leading and profitable market positions in a limited number of niche markets. Kendrion furthermore attaches considerable importance to a well-defined and clear company profile. Within the framework of this approach, the Automotive Metals activity was divested and Linnig Antriebstechnik was acquired in 2007. The acquisition of Tri-Tech LLC likewise corresponds with this strategy. Kendrion has also started an investigation into the possibility of selling its Distribution Services activities. This will be carried out by Rabo Securities. Kendrion expects to be able to announce the results of the investigation before the end of this year.

Outlook

Kendrion benefited from good market conditions in the first six months of this year. Macroeconomic conditions are now, however, expected to deteriorate somewhat in the second half of the year. This could primarily have an impact on the trading activities. Kendrion nonetheless expects to achieve both improved revenue and operating profit in the second half of 2008 in comparison to the same period of last year in view of the order portfolio at Kendrion Electromagnetic and its market positions. This improvement will be primarily apparent in the fourth quarter.
